This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

MAURICE E. McLOUGHLIN
National Champion

THIRTY-SECOND NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

AFTER repeated desperate campaigns, the invading forces from the far away Pacific Coast this year captured at last from the Eastern defenders the final citadel of American Lawn Tennis, winning in brilliant fashion both the Singles and Doubles Championship.

The new Singles champion is Maurice Evans McLoughlin of San Francisco, the dashing youth of twenty-two years whose meteoric rise to fame in the past four seasons has so stirred the tennis world. Now, although younger than any other player to attain the highest place in American tennis (with the sole exception of R. D. Wrenn), he stands acknowledged the most brilliant and able racket wielder in this country, and the logical successor to the retired master-player, William A. Larned.

The tournament which made the new champion was held like all its predecessors, at the famous Casino at Newport, R. I., August 19 to 26 inclusive, and marvelously lived up to the predictions freely made as to it, that the new blood which had for several years steadily been pressing to the fore in American tennis would at last prove dominant.

For with Larned and Beals Wright eliminated, the older order represented by Clothier, Little, etc., was wholly eclipsed, and McLoughlin, Wallace Johnson, Williams, all men in the early twenties, emerged preeminent, with the scarcely older Behr, Gardner and Niles well up.

From every aspect the tournament itself was almost perfection, smashing to smithereens all previous records for speed and smoothness, J. Pluvius for once withholding his usual three-day deluge, and although the weather was threatening several times there was no delay. The management, under the new president, R. D. Wrenn, and his able corps of assistants, was absolutely without criticism, the supplying of courts and umpires ran like clock work and the galleries were bigger and better provided for than ever.

Although the tournament was shorn of its former glory, the challenge match, its lack was little felt, thanks to the series of remarkable contests which filled the event and kept the spectators at a high pitch of enthusiasm.

NATIONAL SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIP

The draw was surprisingly even on paper, but because of defaults and upsets soon lost its symmetry, Wright in the lower eighth failing play, and Bundy, apparently a sure semi-finalist in the top of the lower half, being eliminated by illness.

The popular favorite, McLoughlin, was in the second eighth and met but little opposition until he reached the sixth round, where he encountered his supposedly most dangerous rival, Richard N. Williams of Philadelphia, the wonderful young newly-crowned Clay Court champion, who had reached that bracket with the loss of only one set, to his Doubles partner, Craig Biddle.

A battle royal resulted on the Championship court as had been anticipated, upon the result of which probably hung the title.

It was a meeting of daring brilliant and tremendously hard hitting tennis giants, and victory perched first on the banner of one, then of the other until with the sets two all, McLoughlin, by a supreme and masterly effort showing a little more steadiness and versatility, captured the fifth at 6-3 for the match.

Clothier loomed up supreme in the third eighth, playing with old time power. He lost one set to E. P. Larned, but defeated R. D. Little in a walk. The latter had gained the sixth rung by an easy path, his only real opponent being G. P. Gardner, Jr., who had proved le bete noir to to N. W. Niles as usual. Gardner was ill and far from true form against Little, however, and their meeting was a disappointment as a result.

Fewexpected much of Clothier in his match with McLoughlin, but when he at last became thoroughly aroused after losing the first two sets in easy fashion, he suddenly became the Clothier of old, hitting with tremendous force, running like a deer, and the match, after a mediocre start, ended up like a whirlwind.

The Princeton star, G. M. Church, played sterling tennis for five rounds, disposing on the way of Bundy, who after playing three sets was obliged to default because of illness. Karl Behr, the comet of 1907, smashed out a victory over Church in the next round in short order, however.

The lower quarter furnished a plethora of hard fights. From them there emerged victorious W. F. Johnson of Philadelphia, who "came back" in earnest after two years in the doldrums, and after disposing of A. S. Dabney and W. M. Washburn met Behr in the semi-finals. The latter was the strong favorite, but Johnson from the outset began and continued a streak of almost perfect tennis playing, his deadly chop stroke like a machine and absolutely smothering the ex-Yale star, who never succeeded in getting going.

This brought the dark horse and surprise of the tournay, Wallace F. Johnson, up against McLoughlin, the first choice and logical favorite, and an anti-climax was anticipated. But as it turned out, never was there less of one, for Johnson, playing as never before, went through the surprised, worried and uncertain McLoughlin, as a hot knife does through butter. McLoughlin's stroke would not go in, and the first two sets went quickly to the Easterner, 6-3, 6-1.

All at sea the favorite abandoned his natural game for a weak imitation of his rival's with disastrous results. The third set was a heart-breaking affair. McLoughlin worked desperately, his terrific efforts and nerve finally turning the trick and giving him the set at 6-3.

After the rest both men played uncertainly for a set, Johnson showing the greater strain from the first three, but as his play fell, off McLoughlin's improved by leaps and bounds, and when the trumpet sounded for the final clash the champion-to-be was himself again, winning 6-2, and displaying all his renowned dash and power.

NATIONAL DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

Preliminary Round

By winning the Preliminary Doubles, held on July 31st at th Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest, Ill., Thomas C. Bundy and Maurice E. McLaughlin cleared the way for their final assault on the National Doubles Championship held by Little and Touchard, and again demonstrated their prowess defeating the representatives of the South (Smith and Thornton) and of the Middle West (Winston and Whitehead) setless.

The champions of the Middle West furnished the surprise of the event when in the first round they eliminated the Eastern winners and big favorites, Clothier, ex-National champion, and G. P. Gardner in one of the longest and closest matches ever played in that event.

The scores:

W. T. Hayes and J. H. Winston (Western Doubles champions) beat W. J. Clothier and G. P. Gardner, Jr. (Eastern champions), 6-4, 5-7, 8-10, 6-4, 6-4; M. E. McLoughlin and T. C. Bundy, (Pacific Coast champions) beat C. Y. Smith and Nat. Thornton (Southern Champions), 6-2, 6-1, 6-1.

M. E. McLoughlin and T. C. Bundy, (Pacific Coast champions) beat W. T. Hayes and J. H. Winston (Western champions), 6-0, 7-5, 6-3.

NATIONAL DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

California annexed the National Doubles titles as well as the Singles crown last year, her sterling pair of experts, Maurice E. McLoughlin and Thomas C. Bundy, meeting the 1911 champions on the third day of the Singles Tournament at Newport, a day's postponement of the event being necessitated by the illness of one of the challengers, Bundy, "Little Napoleon of the Pacific Coast," and defeating them handily.

In spite of being so weak from illness and lack of food that his play at at the outset was almost pitiful, Bundy pluckily insisted on going on Wedneday and before the match was over had proved himself the real star of the meeting.

A gallery only exceeded in numbers by the one which watched the final match in Singles, gathered to see the new champions made. Play started poorly, all four putting up an erratic and decidedly mediocre game, Bundy being weak and McLoughlin erring in his endeavor to do the work of two men. The defenders won the first set rather easily at 6-3, but thereafter Bundy rallied wonderfully and getting into every play materially aided his team to annex the second, 6-2. The third set was not up to championship standard, Little failing through over eagerness to seize a golden opportunity to capture it, when, with the score 3-1 in his favor, he made a series of bad errors.

The challengers pulled it out, and with a 2-1 lead in sets, after the intermission put on all steam, and after a dozen lively and hard-fought games had been played annexed the one needed to give them the titles.

The score:

Maurice E. McLoughlin and Thomas C. Bundy (challengers) beat Raymond D. Little and Gustave F. Touchard (holders), 3-6, 6-2, 6-1, 7-5.

CLAY COURT CHAMPIONSHIP

A NEW holder of the United States Clay Court title was crowned at the third annual event and very successful meeting, held this year on the courts of the Pittsburg Athletic Association during the week of June 22, namely the latest youthful phenomenon, R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia, Pa.

Playing like a whirlwind, he came through the tournament without the loss of a set, defeating Gustave F. Touchard in the final round and then successfully challenging Walter T. Hayes, the 1911 winner.

Five events were included in the program, and the entry in each surpassed that of any previous year, but in Singles at least, the interest was lessened by the fact that several of the favorites were eliminated early as a result of a number of unlooked for upsets, R. D. Little succumbing to F. H. Harris and W. Merrill Hall to Armstrong.

In Doubles H. H. Hackett and W. M. Hall proved that they are worthy successors to Hackett and Alexander, going through a strong entry list in straight sets and winning the titles from Winston and Whitehead in an interesting four-set match.

Miss May Sutton, the invincible, won the Women's Singles title from the National champion, Miss Mary K. Browne, and also annexed the mixed event, paired with F. H. Harris.

The committee did everything to make it a most pleasant week for the visiting players in the way of entertainments.

OFFICIAL RANKING FOR 1912

IN accordance with a resolution passed by the U. S. N. L. T. A. at its meeting in February, 1912, the Ranking Committee, consisting of Miles S. Charlock, chairman, George T. Adee and Charles M. Bull, Jr., ranked for the season exactly 100 players. The rating was made along lines laid down for them by the association which called for the ranking of that number in classes of ten each, those comprising the first only to be placed in numerical position, and all the others arranged alphabetically. Furthermore, the committee were called upon to place the contestants as nearly as possible upon the strength of their records in actual tournament competition, the events late in the season bearing more weight than those earlier in the year, however, and each player desiring to be rated was required to send in a complete list of his victories and defeats. Thus the personal equation was almost entirely eliminated and the list was not made up, as so largely in the past, on the belief of the committee as to what a player was actually capable of regardless of his real record.

DAVIS CUP MATCHES

BRITISH ISLES VS. FRANCE

Preliminary

FOR the first time in seven years, France entered the competition for the Davis Cup, meeting the British Isles in the only preliminary match, (America having been unable to secure a competent and representative team last year) which was played on July 11 and 12 at Folkestone, Eng., the visitors capturing but one out of the five contests. On the first day A. H. Gobert made their only tally by defeating A. W. Gore, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

The veteran, Dixon, defeated Decugis rather easily, and Gobert after a stiff fight, Gore after losing to Gobert met Decugis and won, receiving a default when rain interfered while he was leading, 6-3, 6-0, while in Doubles, H. Roper-Barrett and Dixon, the British National champions, disposed of Gobert and Laurentz in four fast and brilliant sets.

First Day's Play: C. P. Dixon (British Isles) beat Max Decugis (France), 6-3, 6-2, 6-4; A. H. Gobert (France) beat A. W. Gore (British Isles), 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Second Day's Play: H. Roper Barrett and C. P. Dixon (British Isles) beat A. H. Gobert and W. H. Laurentz (France), 3-6, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1.

Third Day's Play: C. P. Dixon (British Isles) beat A. H. Gobert (France), 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-3; A. W. Gore (British Isles) beat Max Decugis (France), 6-3, 6-0, default.

BRITISH ISLES VS. AUSTRALASIA

Finals

The far underrated team representing the British Isles and composed of C. P. Dixon, J. C. Parke, A. E. Beamish and F. G. Lowe (the last named not being called upon to play) succeeded last November where America's best had thrice failed, and lifted the famous Davis Cup—blue ribbon of the Lawn Tennis World—from the Australasians, by a score of three matches to two.

The matches were held on November 28, 29 and 30, at Melbourne, Victoria, every external condition being ideal and a gallery of over 5,000 people witnessing each of the five royal battles.

The First Day

On the first day the brilliant young Irish champion, James Cecil Parke, rose to the occasion and defeated the world famous Norman Brookes in four sets, 8-6, 6-3, 5-7, 6-2, thus making a material breach in the defenders' fortifications and making himself the most noted player of the year. The winner played a base line game almost entirely and drove so hard and accurately that he fairly outplayed the mighty Brookes.

The veteran, C. P. Dixon, also a steady and accurate base line expert, made the score 2-0 for the challengers, by defeating R. W. Heath, the weakest member of the Australasian contingent, starting rather poorly but improving enough to win the second, third and fourth sets by a narrow margin.

The Second Day

It was generally conceded that the holders would win the Doubles match, Brookes and Dunlap being a strong team and having defeated Parke and Beamish in the Victorian championship, and they repeated their victory in a straight set win, Dunlap being the particular star and Brookes apparently reserving his strength for the third day.

The Third Day

On the last day Brookes met Dixon in the first match and in spite of stiff opposition won the match in straight sets, making the score 2 all, and the fate of the cup depended on the Parke-Heath battle. The Irish star was not to be denied and playing a cool efficient game defeated the Australian, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4, thus winning the historic trophy for England.

WOMEN'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

ONCE again far away California has produced our National woman champion in both Singles and Doubles, Miss Mary K. Browne of Los Angeles and sister of the veteran Nat B. Browne having won both titles, and become thereby the successor to Mrs. G. W. Wightman (nee Miss Hazel Hotchkiss) who let her crown go by default last year.

MISS MARY K. BROWNE
National Lady Champion

The event was played as in the past on the beautiful turf courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club at St. Martin's, Pa., during the week of June 10, and unlike past years the weather was cool and invigorating with a result that the play advanced with precision and more than usual pleasure to the contestants, the only thing marring the event being a drizzling rain on the last day, during which all three finals were played.

The new Pacific champion defeated in turn Miss Fox, Mrs. Barger Wallach (by default), Miss Fenno, Miss Browning and Miss Eleanora Sears, losing but one set, that in the semi-finals, but although her course to the title was a comparatively smooth one, many of the other matches were extremely close and hard fought. In the final match there was plenty of spirited tennis, but, as always, Miss Sears was erratic and streaky.

In the Women's Doubles there were repeated hard fought contests, but the invader, paired with Miss Dorothy Green of Philadelphia, came through with flying colors again, meeting and defeating in the final round Mrs. Wallach and Mrs. Schmitz, 6-2, 5-7, 6-0.

The usual "side" event, the Mixed Doubles, completed the clean-up for the versatile Miss Browne, for, taking the other new comer, R. N. Wrenn, and Miss Sears and Clothier, many of the matches going to two or more deuce sets.

LONGWOOD BOWL TOURNAMENT

MAURICE E. McLOUGHLIN drove a big spike into his claim to the title of America's foremost tennis player by winning the historic Longwood event in a most impressive manner, his name being the first Californian's to be engraved on the famous trophy. The notable event was held as always on the perfect grass courts of the Longwood Cricket Club, beginning July 15 and lasting ten days, owing to rain on three, but the management ran affairs with its usual skill and facility. The entry list was as weighty as ever, only Long, Little and Gardner of the leading active players being absent, and the brilliant R. N. Williams was present for the first time.

Every round furnished one or more splendid contests, but the real battles royal began in the fourth, in which bracket Karl Behr, by a phenomenal uphill rally upset the "dope" by defeating Williams in five terrific sets, and Niles avenged himself for his defeat by Touchard in 1911 by beating the New Yorker also, in five long sets.

Niles, however, fell a quick victim the next morning to his hoodoo, G. P. Gardner, Jr., who in turn lost to his team mate, Clothier, being obliged to play that afternoon and tiring quickly after a good start.

Behr met McLoughlin in the fifth round, the latter having played scarcely more than practice matches thereto, and the match was a hammer and tongues affair, the last set going to 10-8, but the coming champion held the upper hand. This brought the Californian star and Clothier together in the finals, and the former was right on his game while the latter, though fighting stubbornly, lacked aggressiveness, and his rather soft returns were ineffective against his rival's dash, and a close but straight set win resulted. McLoughlin then challenged E. P. Larned, the 1911 winner, and as was anticipated, the match proved an anti-climax, the latter being forced to relinquish his title in straight sets.

EASTERN DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

THE Eastern Doubles Championship was held as always in conjunction with the Longwood Bowl tournament, 32 pairs, made up of a galaxy of stars, competing for the right to represent this section in the preliminary National Doubles. As in the Singles the early rounds furnished several hard fought contests but not till the third did the real fireworks begin. In this bracket Wright and Behr, strong favorites, were caught napping and eliminated by Clothier and Gardner in four sets, and Hackett and Mahan fell in straight sets before Niles and Dabney. In the fourth Williams and Biddle had their hands full in disposing of Seaver and Putnam and the coming winners removed Niles and Dabney from the running in four sets, the last named being off his game. This brought three Philadelphians and one Bostonian together in the finals, and after a fine match in which Biddle rose to unbelievable heights, the steadiness of Clothier and Gardner's dash gave them the victory and titles.

SOUTHAMPTON TOURNAMENT

MEADOW CLUB, LONG ISLAND

N. W. NILES proved the star of the annual Southampton Invitation Tournament, capturing the Singles event by winning a series of hard matches from Craig Biddle, Thomas C. Bundy, Fred Colston, E. P. Larned and Wallace F. Johnson in the order named.

All except the Colston match, in which the winner did not lose a game, were hard fought and extremely even contests, with Niles just barely able to emerge the victor.

The special feature and upset of the meeting, however, was the wholly unexpected defeat of R. N. Williams, the latest tennis marvel, by Wallace Johnson, who was just beginning to "come back" with a vengeance, and played deadly tennis from the start, fairly swamping the strong favorite, who was as wild as a hawk. Johnson's game fell off a little in the final round and Niles defeated him after a long see-saw battle by a score of 7-5, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

The Doubles event produced a galaxy of stars including McLoughlin and Clothier who had not entered the Singles. These two with their regular partners, Bundy and Gardner, respectively, opposed each other in the finals, and the Pacific Coast champions won, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

The Mixed Doubles event went to Mrs. McLean and Mahan, who defeated Miss Kane and Fisher in the finals.

The tournament was held as usual at the Meadow Club, Southampton, during the week of August 12, and weather, management and entry list all conspired to make the meeting a nearly ideal one.

THE CHICAGO CHAMPIONSHIP

THE second annual tournament for the Lawn Tennis Championship of Chicago, was held at the Kenwood Country Club, July 13th to 20th, with 92 contestants in Singles and 36 teams in Doubles. The feature of the tournament was the playing of Miss May Sutton, generally considered the leading lady player of the world. In the men's Singles there were no surprises, Walter T. Hayes winning with the loss of only one set. The Doubles furnished two very sensational upsets. The first came in the semi-finals when Squair and Green of the University of Chicago beat Hayes and Forstall in straight sets, although Hayes and Forstall had been generally picked as nearly sure winners. But an even greater surprise came when Burdick and Bailey, who had never played as a team before the tournament, defeated Squair and Green in a long and fiercely contested match for the championship, winning the last set at 6—0. The ladies' Singles were rather one-sided until the final match, in which Miss Carrie Neely played a splendid game and made a great fight against May Sutton, forcing the first set to deuce and taking four games in the third. Miss Sutton, however, was playing in excellent form and held the match safe thoughout. Record-breaking crowds witnessed the final matches, attracted largely by the playing of Miss Sutton of Los Angeles, California.

Long had as his opponent in the finals a boy from San Francisco, William Johnston, the brilliant young "comer," but in this meeting the veteran and internationalist won 6-1, 6-2, 6-3.

A team of dark horses, Dawson of Los Angeles and Wickersham of Portland playing together for the first time, created an upset by winning the doubles from a strong field, but the big favorite May Sutton, did the expected capturing the three women's events, meeting and defeating her sister Florence in the final round of each.

LAWN TENNIS ON THE CANAL ZONE

DURING the last seven years lawn tennis has sprung from nothing at all to a most flourishing game in Uncle Sam's new possession, the Panama Canal Zone. The first court was built by Dr. Lister and his associates at the hospital at Ancon in 1905, and the number has steadily grown with the influx of American and English enthusiasts until it has reached 18, and clubs have been organized at Ancon, Empire, Corozal, Culebra, Las Cascadas, Bas Obispo, Gorgona, Gatun, Cristobal and Colon.

The first open tournament was held at Ancon in 1909, Joseph Brewster being returned winner in singles and Drs. Herrick and Ross in doubles. In December came the formation of the Isthmian Tennis Association, and in 1910 there was held the first tournament, a Round Robin affair, the Empire Club winning by a hair. From that time to the present the popularity of the game has increased by leaps and bounds and the calibre of the play, the past year bringing to the front J. T. Neely, a former Englewood Club star and now a representative of the Gatun Club, who, by winning the July 4th open event and two regular tournaments, has demonstrated his right to be considered the ranking player.

The winner of the regular events for 1912 are as follows:

Singles

January, winner, Alex. Fechtig, Tivoli Club.
March, winner, J. T. Neely, Gatun Club.
May, winner, J. T. Neeley, Gatun Club.

Doubles

February, winners, Newbold and Pulsifer, Empire Club.
April, winners, Drs. Ross and Runyan, Ancon Club.
June, winners, Neely and Wheeler, Gatun Club.

Open Tournament, July 4, 1912

Singles won by J. T. Neely, Gatun Club.
Doubles won by Drs. Herrick and Runyan, Ancon Club.

TENNIS IN HAWAII

THE year 1912 saw continued activity in tennis in the Hawaiian Islands, due large to the impetus given the game by the visits of the American Team, consisting of W. A. Larned, Beals Wright and M. E. McLoughlin, on its return from Australia, and of Carl Gardner, who played in the Manila tournament.

Naturally, the Hawaiian players were no match for the members of the American team, but the experience gained by playing against superior players was of the utmost value. Castle and Roth played Wright and McLoughlin in doubles, losing 6-2, 6-0, 6-4; the accurate placing of Wright and McLoughlin's great speed being a revelation. A few days later, McLoughlin defeated Castle, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4 in a well played match, McLoughlin however not being required to exert himself.

Carl Gardner, on his way to Manila, partnered with Nowell of Honolulu, lost to Castle and Roth in a close match, and then was beaten by Castle in singles, 6-2, 6-2. On his return from Manila, however, he was in much better form, and twice defeated Castle, the first time, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2, and the second 6-4, 6-4, this last match being anybody's up to the end.

The championships for the Islands were not played until July in order to let the men in colleges on the mainland participate. The tournament was the most successful ever held in Hawaii, and the playing way above the average. J. A. Richards, now at Wesleyan college, got into the finals by steady work, meeting there the champion Castle, who under the new rules played through the tournament. The latter had just returned from Europe, and was in no form, losing 6-0, 6-4, 6-4, the match however, being rather closer than the score indicates. The best match of the tournament was that between Lowrey, now at Harvard, and Richards in the semi-finals. Lowrey led at two sets to love, and appeared to have the match well in hand when lack of condition told, and he soon lost the remaining sets. The doubles resulted in a win for Roth and Dillingham, two old-time champions, who played very well together. In the finals they were opposed by Castle and Richards, a team picked up just as the entries closed, but the superior team work of the older players told, and they won easily, 6-4, 7-5, 6-0. A strike on the Inter-Island Steamship Company prevented two of the best players from competing,—Lowrey, and Stephenson, of Haverford, Pa. The latter was paired with Richards, and the former with Castle, and the breaking up of the original pairing unquestionably lowered the class of playing in the doubles.

Sufficient interest was taken in tennis during the tournament to warrant a ladies' event. This brought out some very close playing, the finals resulting in a win for Miss Edna Smith, of Quincy, Massachusetts, over Miss Louise Phillips, of Chicago, by the score of 4-6, 6-1, 9-7.

Outside of the main events, the Hall Cup again created considerable interest, being retained by Eklund, of Ewa Plantation, after some close matches. The Wall Cup, an important club tournament, was won by Castle, and an invitation tournament, given by the Beretania Club, by C. T. Littlejohn.

Several inter-club matches were run off, Ewa Plantation twice defeating the Manoa Club, and twice the officers from Schofield Barracks. The Beretania Club regained their lost laurels by defeating the Pacific Club in a close contest. In the big inter-island match, Oahu defeated Maui by a close score of 112 points to 93, the contest taking place on the courts of the Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Company during its Harvest Home Festival.

Outside of the Island of Oahu, with the exception of Hilo, Hawaii, where an annual tournament is held, tennis is played mostly at the plantations, there being a court or courts on practically every sugar estate, and many of the plantations have teams of their own. As the rivalry is keen, the teams journey many miles to meet each other, frequently being followed by loyal rooters, so the game of tennis has done more than any other to promote healthy competition and clean sport in the country districts.

GEORGE M. CHURCH
Intercollegiate Champion

NATIONAL INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

PRINCETON by winning both the Singles and Doubles events in the 32nd National Intercollegiate Championship, unexpectedly came from the rear and captured the Isaac H. Clothier trophy which had been in competition for six years.

The tournament was held, as in the past, at the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, Pa., during the week of September 4th, and proved unusually successful, having a classier entry list than for several years. Most of the matches were interesting, but the climax came in the finals where G. M. Church, Princeton, made a sensational finish against J. G. Nelson of Dartmouth, capturing the title in a five set match after the latter was within one point of the match in the fourth on a close decision, after which the persistent Church won the title for Princeton.

Furthermore, paired with Mace, the Orange and Black representative captured the Doubles, defeating Whitney and Washburn of Harvard in the finals, in four sets, thus gaining the Challenge Cup.

NEW ENGLAND INTERCOLLEGIATE TOURNAMENT

THE New England Intercollegiate tournament took place on the dirt courts of the Longwood Cricket Club, the week of May 27th. As the old Championship Cup was won last year by Dartmouth after 12 years' competition (which caused a new cup to be put up) no doubt it will be several years before any one college will get the necessary points for it to become their property.

All the New England Colleges, members of the Association, were represented, and an interesting tournament resulted. C. L. Johnston, Jr., of Amherst won the Singles, the Doubles going to Johnston and Miller, thus giving Amherst the honor of winning both Singles and Doubles.

NATIONAL INTERSCHOLASTIC CHAMPIONSHIP

THE National Interscholastic championship, held in conjunction with the Singles and Doubles title events at Newport, assumed an unusual importance under the direction of President R. D. Wrenn last year, being specially featured on Wednesday and Thursday. The list was remarkably weighty, only one of the sectional representatives who had qualified failing to appear, i. e. E. H. Rogers of far away California.

CLIFTON B. HERD
Interscholastic Champion

C. B. Herd of Pasadena, Cal., representing Exeter Academy and Harvard, completed the clean up for the Pacific Coast, winning first from McKim by his terrific speed, 6-0, 6-0, 3-6, 6-1 the loss of the third set resulting from equally terrific wildness, then from Ward in straight sets, which took 49 games and was a battle royal, however, and finally from Weber in another erratic but speedy match.

The Summary:

Interscholastic Championship

First Round: V. G. Ward (Columbia University) beat H. Norton (Princeton), 6-1, 7-5, 2-6, 6-2; C. B. Herd (Harvard) beat W. L. McKim (U. of P.), 6-0, 6-0, 3-6, 6-1; J. H. Weber (Illinois University) beat E. H. Rogers (California University) by default.

NEW YORK STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

COMING events cast their shadows before, and M. E. McLoughlin in winning the New York State championship, held as in past years at the Crescent Athletic Club at Bay Ridge August 1–10, encountered just the same kind of opposition from the youthful Williams that he was to meet with in the Nationals, needing five long hard fought sets to get away with this important tournament from the Philadelphia star.

This meeting, next in importance to Longwood, brought out an entry list numbering 80 in singles, and including most of the leading stars, and the doubles event was fully as weighty and aroused great enthusiasm. In doubles "the shadow" was still further manifest when McLoughlin and Bundy defeated the national title holders, Little and Touchard, and won the event by defeating Inman and Behr in the finals, although losing one set to them.

McLoughlin defeated in succession Washburn, Mahan, Bundy and Williams in Singles, only the last named giving him a real battle however, but Williams played him to a dead standstill, outplacing him and only losing as a result of no less than 21 double faults, due partly to the high wind.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE TENNIS TOURNAMENTS

The tennis season of 1912 was a most successful one, members of the Merion Cricket Club, Haverford, Pennsylvania, winning honors in many of the tournaments, and almost taking the National Singles Championship through Wallace F. Johnson, who only lost after five hard-fought sets, and became the national runner-up for 1912.

In the national ranking of all tennis players in the United States for the year, two Merion members were ranked among the first four players.

Merion men captured both first and second honors in the Philadelphia and District Tournament, Rowland Evans, Jr., winning the championship, and C. Stanley Rogers winning second place.

The Merion Men's First Tennis Team, H. C. Townsend, Jr., captain, won the Inter-Club Tennis Cup for 1912; and the Women's Second Team also won their Championship Cup for 1912.

Miss Dorothy Green, with Miss Brown, won the Women's Championship of the United States in Doubles.

The championship of the club in Men's Singles was won by C. Stanley Rogers.

The several open tennis tournaments held on the Merion grounds during the season were marked by excellent lists of entries, and many new players appeared in the contests.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE TOURNAMENT

This tournament was held June 3 and following days, and had a larger list of entries than the 1911 tournament.

The Singles Championship was won by R. Norris Williams, Jr., and the Doubles by Wallace F. Johnson and George H. Brooke.

MASSACHUSETTS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Massachusetts State Singles Championship was held during the week of June 10, on the historic Longwood Cricket Club's courts as usual, and although the entry numbered only sixty as against seventy-one in 1911, it was fully up to the high standard of other years, thanks to the presence of several new cracks, such as F. H. Harris and W. M. Washburn.

The particular star of the meeting was Alfred S. Dabney, who, playing with his familiar dash and brilliance and with none of his usual erraticness won the "all-comers," defeating in order, Harris, H. C. Johnson, Washburn and Bishop, the last named in the finals by a score of 7-5, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3.

In the challenge match against his team mate, N. W. Niles, the title holder, Dabney kept up his splendid work and although he failed to win, succeeded in forcing Niles to extend himself at all times, captured one set and sent three of the four to deuce.

MASSACHUSETTS STATE DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

Charles F. and Harry C. Johnson "came back" after a lapse of three years and regained their titles of Doubles champions of Massachusetts, in the State Tournament held as usual on Memorial Day and week following, at the Brae Burn Country Club. The event was doubly shorn of its challenge round, by the decision of the committee to have the champions play through and by the absence from the state of F. J. Sulloway, one of the holders, and the tournay was further weakened by the absence of most of the stronger players. The winners' road to the titles was comparatively easy, two defaults helping materially. Bishop and Rhodes, their strongest rivals, were eliminated in the semi-finals, and Wheelwright and Dana in the finals.

RHODE ISLAND STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

A brand new order of things marked the Rhode Island State Championship, held as usual at the Agawam Hunt Club, August 3-7. For the first time in the quarter century history of the event non-residents of the state were allowed to participate, and taking advantage of this fact, Beals C. Wright of Boston "came back" and annexed the title held for so many years by the veteran "Jed" Jones, defeating the champion who played through,—another innovation,—en route.

An entry list of 64 as against the usual 30 to 35 made the tournament a history making affair. Three out of five set matches ruled after the second round and many of the contests were spirited, Wright, however, outclassing the field and coming through with the loss of but one set.

Rhode Island State Doubles Championship

As was the case in Singles, the Doubles tournament was made an open event this year, and attracted a fair contingent of visitors from Massachusetts.

However, the former champions, J. D. E. Jones and Henshaw, captured the titles for the third consecutive time, defeating Beals and Scott of Boston in a four-set match in the final round, 6-2, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2.

MINNESOTA STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Eleventh Championship of the Minnesota State Tennis Association, held at Minneapolis, August 10 and days following, surpassed all its predecessors in excellence and size, more than 160 players participating in the several events.

J. J. Armstrong of St. Paul, the titlist, went down in defeat before the onslaught of a club mate, John W. Adams, to the tune of 5-7, 6-0, 6-0, 6-1. The winner played rare tennis while his opponent was clearly over trained.

Paired together, these two won the Doubles easily, while Miss Marguerite Davis and Misses Drake and Nichols, all of St. Paul as well, won the Women's Singles and Doubles respectively.

OKLAHOMA STATE TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

The Fifth Annual Championship of Oklahoma, held at McAlester, August 6, far surpassed any previous tournament. It excelled in number of entries and even more in their quality as six states were represented, besides Oklahoma, viz., Kansas, Wisconsin, Missouri, Tennessee, Arkansas and Texas. The courts and accommodations provided by the McAlester Country Club were far the best that has been given to any state tournament and the McAlester committees did splendid work.

JOHN T. BAILEY
Oklahoma State Champion

The feature of the tournament by all odds was the work of the foreign players. They made the running all through the tournament, winning the Doubles and making a great fight for the Singles.

In the Singles J. T. Bailey of Albion, Okla., won the championship, defeating R. F. Shelton of Dallas in the semi-finals and J. B. Adoue, Jr., also of Dallas, in the finals. Bailey thus completed a record, having won the Oklahoma State Championship four times without ever losing a set and never having lost a set or match in a state tournament.

In the Doubles Adoue and Shelton of Dallas, Tex., became the new Oklahoma champions. Defeating Bailey and Speice in the finals they defeated the team which had won the Oklahoma championship three years in succession.

PACIFIC STATES CHAMPIONSHIP

FOR the third time Maurice E. McLoughlin captured the Singles Championship of the Pacific States, playing through the tournament with no real opposition, as his only formidable rival, M. E. Long, who had been playing in fine form, sprained his ankle and was obliged to default in the final round.

The event took place at Santa Cruz, June 24 to 29, inclusive, with a rather small entry in Singles, but a weighty one in Doubles, which event proved the far more interesting of the two, being won by Bundy and Dawson, the Los Angeles team, from William Johnston, coming player, and C. P. Gardner in a closely contested match in the finals.

Miss Florence Sutton twice emerged as a victor, in Singles and Mixed Doubles, and Mrs. Neimeyer and Miss Baker won the Women's Doubles.

PACIFIC STATES DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

M. E. McLOUGHLIN and T. C. Bundy gained a foothold on the first rung of the tennis ladder which carried them to the National Doubles championship, when they won the Pacific Coast title on the courts of the Los Angeles Country Club, July 6. They had the narrowest kind of a squeeze in the final match, however, just emerging victors from a wonderful and heartbreaking battle with two school boy stars, William Johnston and Elia Fottrell, aged 17 and 19 years, respectfully.

Thirty-eight teams, a new record, entered the competition and the contests were remarkably keen throughout, no less than eight matches taking the full five sets. Climatic and court conditions were perfect and the galleries large and enthusiastic.

Johnston and Fottrell proved the surprises and hits of the tournament from the start, upsetting several teams of favorites and they all but won from the champions to be in a thrilling hair raising finale. The boys played like demons, Johnston raining in red hot aces even off McLoughlin's world famous service, and gained a lead of two sets to one with their experienced rivals cramping their strokes from sheer nervousness, and utterly ineffective. The fourth set was a desperate battle but when McLoughlin and Bundy finally captured it at 6-4 the match was practically over for the boys gave way under the strain, and lost the final set quickly.

LAWN TENNIS BALLS

LAWN Tennis balls, although it is not realized by most tennis players, are most delicate and should be taken care of as carefully as the gut in one's racket. For instance, in a Championship ball the requirements are very precise, and it has to be manufactured most carefully to meet all requirements. The felt covering on a ball is very important. The wall or thickness of the rubber must be just so. If too thick, one will be unable to play the various shots correctly, especially the volley, and, if too thin, the ball cannot be controlled properly, being too lively.

Heat and cold have more effect on a ball than almost anything. In cold weather the balls become heavy and soggy and need more hitting, while on a hot day, they expand and one's stroke must be more sensitive, consequently on hot days the play is much faster.

Players as well as dealers should keep the balls in a dry place of even temperature, then they will hold their life longer and will not deteriorate and become soft.

It is a great mistake and one that is often made for players to leave the balls unboxed in a locker with damp clothing. It is only natural that balls wear out more quickly when used on dirt or cement courts, because the felt cover which cannot be made of a coarse material, wears out easily, thus causing the ball to become light and hard to control. This is most noticeable on a windy day when lobbing or playing a long stroke from behind the base line. Balls used on grass hold their weight and are likely to become somewhat heavier. When practicing for big contests the leading players seldom use the balls in more than from three to four sets during an afternoon's practice.

TOURNAMENTS OF 1912

W. C. Grant won the New York Lawn Tennis Club Championship held at the club's new courts at the Columbia Oval beginning May 25, his final match being against S. H. Voshell, the winner scoring in straight sets, 6-2, 10-8, 6-1.

Voshell had his revenge in the Doubles however, for paired with F. C. Baggs, he won from Grant and Friedman in a battle royal, 6-3. 6-8, 6-3, 5-7, 6-3.

The invitation Tournament of the Ardsley (N. Y.) Tennis Club held during the week of June 10 proved to be a marked success, F. C. Inman emerging victorious in Singles by defeating Shafer in the final round, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1, 6-1; while Little playing with H. H. Hackett met and defeated his partner in the national championship, G. F. Touchard, who was paired with Edgar Leonard, in the finals of the Doubles, 6-1 6-4, 7-9, 6-2.

G. F. Touchard retained his Long Island title by defeating the challenger S. H. Voshell in a thrilling five set match, in which the challenger, always in earnest while the titlist was a bit listless, was nine times within a point of the match. Voshell and Baggs won the Doubles from Rosenbaum and Phillips, 3-6, 9-7, 10-8, 1-6, 6-3.

The tournament was held at the King's County, Tennis Club, Brooklyn, beginning June 24, but the challenge match was not played until July 29.

The championship of the Connecticut Valley held as usual at the Springfield Country Club, July 1 and days following, resulted in a win for "Rab" Seaver who successfully defended his title for the second time against the assault on Fred H. Harris, the score being 6-2, 6-1, 3-6, 1-6, 8-6. The Doubles event went to the Cole Brothers who won in the finals from Seaver and Miller, 4-6, 6-2, 7-5.

The most important of the early tournaments—the Seabright (N. J.) invitation meeting, played during the week of July 8, was won by N. W. Niles, M. H. Long not defending, and the Boston star thereby captured his second leg on the historic Achelis Challenge Cup which already bears the name of Larned, Wright, Little, Clothier, Alexander and Long.

H. H. Hackett and L. E. Mahan captured the Doubles event losing but two sets, one to W. A. Larned and R. D. Wrenn and the other to Behr and Inman.

Niles victory in Singles was clean cut and most creditable for he played brilliant and consistent tennis throughout, defeating G. M. Church, G. P. Gardner, Karl Behr, and Clothier in order. The score in the final match being 4-6, 6-3, 6-1, 6-4.

The annual Championship of Northeastern Pennsylvania held at the Scranton, C. C., September 11-14, furnished a surprise in the defeat in the final round of W. B. Cragin, Jr., by a young "commer", Louis Graves, in short straight sets, 6-1, 6-3, 6-4. E. H. and G. C. Shafer won the Doubles titles. Little and Mahan, the last named in a close five set match, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3. A still classier list graced the Doubles event, Little and Hackett proving to be the king pins and winning the finals from Pell and Mahan in a four set contest, 6-4, 1-6, 6-2, 9-7.

Miss Marie Wagner captured the women's Singles and Misses McLean and Mahan, the mixed Doubles.

The Singles event of the annual Metropolitan Championship, held as usual at the West Side Tennis Club, New York City, beginning June 15, proved a marked anti-climax, most of the supposedly strongest competitors having early fallen by the wayside, and R. D. Little, the former internationalist, progressed by increasingly easier matches to the title. The winner lost a set to Craig Biddle, but eliminated Niles, Mathey, the Englishman, Andrews, and defeated Dabney in the finals, 6-4, 6-1, 6-3.

The Doubles furnished a better contest, many of the matches being hard fought, culminating in the defeat of the then National Champions Little and Touchard by Hackett and Hall in a great five set match, 0-6, 2-6, 6-3, 7-5, 6-4.

The Doyle family made a clean up of the annual Chevy Chase Spring Tournament held at Washington, D. C., during the first week in June, "C. NATIONAL INDOOR LAWN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

THE Seventh Regiment Tennis Club held their Fourteenth Annual Championships from February 12 to 20 inclusive, excepting Sunday, February 16, when play was discontinued.

The Tournament was held under difficulties, owing to repairs going on in the building. The great drill room was filled with carpenters, plasterers and painters and during most of the Tournament the players were obliged to play their matches accompanied by an anvil chorus supplied by the army of workmen reconstructing the Armory. Notwithstanding this great inconvenience, the players accepted the situation good naturedly and one of the best Tournaments ever held was the result, both in quality and quantity. Sixty-three men entered the Singles and thirty-four teams in Doubles, the latter being the largest entry in Doubles ever received since the Tournament was inaugurated in 1900. With the exception of F. B. Alexander, all the famous Indoor players were on hand, including Grant, five times Champion, Pell, three times Champion and Touchard, Champion in 1910. Also were entered Shafer, Cragin, Hall, Washburn, Voshell, Mathey, Dionne, Groesbeck, Plimpton, Phillips and Rosenbaum.

THE INTERNATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, CANADA

THE new star, R. N. Williams of Philadelphia, added another fine feather to his cap by winning the Single International Championship, in the twenty-sixth annual tournament at Niagara-on-the-Lake, and with Touchard as team mate captured the Doubles event as well. The latter won in two events also, getting the Mixed Doubles championship with Miss Mary K. Browne, and the National Woman's champion won the Singles, of course.

Beals Wright was a contestor in the Doubles, playing with H. C. Johnson, but the team fell a victim in the third round to Baird and Sherwell, the Canadian Champions.

There was the usual good entry list that resulted in many interesting matches being played. The visiting players were entertained with dances, smoker and golf, which made it a very pleasant week's outing, and the winding up with much excitement over the arrival of Mr. "Pokeys" Bernards' "Launch" Lookout by way of Welling Canal from Buffalo.

PINEHURST TENNIS TOURNAMENT

INTEREST in the third annual Midwinter Tennis Tournament of the Pinehurst Country Club culminated in a keen four set final in men's singles which Lawrence Cowing of Cincinnati won from R. A. Balfe of Brooklyn, 6-3, 3-6, 7-5, 6-0.

The battle was not only very fast, but one in which endurance figured largely, with a struggle to gain the net, which brought forth applause; Balfe's passing strokes and Cowing's deadly killing of lobs, the features. Balfe's win of the second set urged him on to keen effort in the third which he lost by a narrow margin, only to go out on a love set in the fourth, through evident fatigue as a result of his hard morning win.

In the semi-final, Cowing won from Norman Johnson of New York by 5-7, 7-5, 7-5, and Mr. Balfe advanced on a 6-4, 6-1 win from A. H. Grier of Montreal.

In the first round Cowing won from Henry C. Bridgers of Tarboro, N. C., by 6-3, 7-5, Mr. Johnson defeated Howard J. Barnett of Boston, 6-0, 6-2; Mr. Balfe beat Isaac Alder of Tennessee, 6-2, 6-2, and Mr. Grier advanced on the default of J. C. Watson of Fairmont, W. Va.

In the Men's Doubles Final Cowing partnered with Bridgers, defeated Messrs. Balfe and Grier, 2-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Messrs. Balfe and Grier made a brilliant start in the opening match, outdriving and outplaying their opponents, but the winners rallied in the second and rapid play at the net advanced the score to four all. Cowing and Bridgers then broke through Brier's service for a win.

In Mixed Doubles, Mr, Cowing and Miss Agnes Blancke of Essex Fells defeated Mr. Balfe and Miss Helen Barnett of New Haven, 6-1, 6-3.

In the Semi-Final, Mr. Cowing and Miss Blancke won from Mr. Grier and Miss Jeanne Pushee of West Newton, by 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, and Mr. Balfe and Miss Barnett from Mr. and Mrs. John N. Huyck of Albany by 6-4, 6-3, in the final.

Miss Barnett was the winner of Women's Singles, defeating Miss Blancke, 6-2, 6-3.

In the Semi-Final, Miss Barnett defeated Miss Pushee by 6-1, 6-3, and Miss Blancke won from Miss Louise Patterson of Plainfield by 6-3, 6-1.

In Women's Doubles, Mrs. Huyck and Miss Pushee were victorious over the Misses Barnett in the final, 7-5, 6-1.

In the Semi-Final, Mrs. Huyck and Miss Pushee won from Miss

Blancke and Miss Hazel Shannon of Buffalo, 2-6, 6-1, 6-1, and the Misses Barnett advanced on the default of Mrs. A. H. Grier of Montreal, and Mrs. A. S. Newcomb of Biddeford Pool, Me.

Other events on the program include Women's Singles for the Washington birthday sterling cups, February 19, 20, 21; Men's Singles for the February cup, February 26, 27, 28; and the annual club championship, March 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, not to mention several special and invitation events of the coming month.

Henry Clark Bridgers of Tarboro, N. C., chairman of the tournament committee, is enthusiastic about possibilities for 1914. Mr. Bridgers believes the Southern entry for the event will be large, and he anticipates that in future the tournament will draw very important representation from Norfolk, Richmond, Wilmington and other Southern points, gradually increasing its scope until it includes a national area.

"Winter tennis is coming on," says Mr. Bridgers, "and Pinehurst is bound to be a leader in making it popular. Your three years' start has given you a national reputation which is important capital in working for the future. One of the most conspicuous features in connection with this event is the beauty of the trophies offered, and I can assure you that the reputation building value of these prizes is inestimable.

OLYMPIC LAWN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

THE Olympic tennis tournament took place the week before the Olympic games on the clay courts of a private tennis club just outside of the Stadium, Stockholm, Sweden.

There was a good entry list of the different nations. Two South Africans and one American figure in the draw with eight Swedes, eight Germans, as many each from Austria, Bohemia, Hungary, Denmark and Russia. The two South African players who won the tournament played very good tennis, C. L. Winslow winning the Singles, and partnered with H A. Kidston, the Doubles. The United States was represented in the Singles by T. R. Pell, being defeated in the fourth set by L. M. Heyden of Germany, though it might be said by too much enthusiasm of his American admirers. After winning the first set at 6-2, Pell lost three deuce sets to Heyden by 5-7, 6-8, 5-7, after which Heyden played Winslow a hard fought five set match. Mlle. Broquedis of France won the ladies' championship, defeating Frl. Koring of Germany.

LAWN TENNIS BY NIGHT

UNTIL recently tennis by night either in or outdoors, has not been a great success, although it has been tried, the great difficulty being that shadows were cast on the court; besides, when a player would follow a lob the ball would practically get lost in the glare of the light. This has been overcome, however, by the "Buckeye Electric Lighting System," and night tennis is being played at present with great success in Rochester, Buffalo, Cleveland, Lakewood and other cities. This light is practically the same as out of doors in the day time. It casts no shadows and there are no dark spots on the court.

Night tournaments, which have already been held, will be of great advantage to those who are not fortunate enough to get away from business for afternoon play. They will be able to play their favorite sport besides getting the exercise.

The cost of installation and operating of this lighting system is extremely low and the work can be done by any local electrician, simply by following the plans that are furnished, which can be given by the Buckeye Electric Lighting System, Gen'l Electric Co., Cleveland, Ohio. Write them for a Booklet.

LAWN TENNIS NOTES

REGARDING the Davis Cup Competition in more than one way it is a good thing for lawn tennis that England won the Davis Cup from Australasia. To begin with, Australasia has had her share of international victories and by losing the competition will be keener because Australia was too far for most countries to send a team. The competition this year will without doubt be the greatest international tennis event ever held, as seven countries have challenged namely:—Australia, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, United States and South Africa. Australia, United States, France and Germany will all have well balanced teams with players of more or less experience, while the players from Belgium, Canada and South Africa have not been so much in prominence. The country that wins the Preliminaries will have a long hard grind, but should be in good form when playing the present holder—England.

"I CONGRATULATE YOU"

All Championships go to California. The wonderful record made by the stars of the far Pacific Coast of both sexes last season is not likely to be soon duplicated if it ever is.

Of the thirteen championship events bearing the prefix "National" no less than seven went to the Californian contingent and those wonderful players were not represented in the six events which did fall to the lot of the eastern cracks. Furthermore, the far west sent but five players into the fray, but so well did each do his or her apportioned share that every event in which even one was entered was captured for the Pacific Coast.

Only the Clay Court, Indoor and Intercollegiate Singles and Doubles Championships stayed east. The National Championships, Singles and Doubles for men and women, Mixed Doubles, on grass and clay court, and Interscholastic Singles went west.

Tennis is exceedingly popular among Americans and British, as well as French, Germans and other continentals who reside in Shanghai. It is played from the first of May until November. The clubs include the Shanghai Country Club, the Shanghai Cricket Club, the German Country Club, the Cercle Sportif Francais, the Club del Balin, St. John's University and Nanyang University. Besides these, many private residences have from one to five courts attached. The Chinese rarely play, but the native markers at the various clubs have developed great skill, and these and the students at one or two of the local foreign colleges play some very creditable matches.

Maurice E. McLoughlin gained great honors in winning five important championships in Singles, and four Doubles events and several of minor importance without a defeat, a feat perhaps never equalled in American tennis,—certainly not since the days of Malcolm Whitman's triumphal march to the championship. McLoughlin won the National title in Singles and Doubles, the Pacific Coast and Preliminary National Doubles, the Pacific Coast, New York State, Western, Longwood, California, and San Francisco Singles.

So many people are ignorant of the rule of serving that it is not out of place to state that what it amounts to is this;—At the time the racket strikes the ball, both feet must be behind the base line. The difficulty of deciding whether a service is a foot-fault or not lies in the fact that one foot may be raised. But the difficulty is not a serious one—the conscientious umpire has merely to satisfy himself that at the time the ball is struck by the racket both feet are behind the base line. Even if the raised foot is a fraction of an inch over, then it is a foot-fault.

A game, if it is worth playing at all, is worth playing strictly to rules. Those who stand by and allow, without protest, the habitual breaking of an important rule are doing the game poor service. As many sin through pure ignorance, the mere explanation of the rule would stop a great deal of foot-faulting. The argument that because it is only a friendly game, it does not matter is fallacious, and to hesitate to point out a glaring infraction is simply weak-kneed.

The Longwood Cricket Club of Boston, Mass., decided at their annual meeting the past winter to build an Indoor Tennis Building for two courts. The floor will be made of cork which is similar to a fast dirt court. Everything connected with the building will be of the most modern, and lighted for playing at night. The building will be located on the club's new grounds at Chestnut Hill, 20 minutes' car ride out of Boston.

Team matches between clubs is becoming very popular. Last year matches were played between teams of the Pittsburgh Athletic Association, East End Tennis Club of Cleveland and the Park Club of Buffalo, also the Yahnundasis Country Club of Utica, Sedgewick Farms, Lawn Tennis Club of Syracuse, Rochester Lawn Tennis Club of Rochester, and Park Club. The teams consist of from four to six players. Matches played are both Singles and Doubles, each club visiting the other and bringing out the best of a sporting spirit and a sociable good time.

The Bay State League, organized in 1907, consists of teams representing the Country Clubs of Fitchburg, Leominster, Gardner and Ayer, Mass. Each team played two matches with every other team, one at home and one at the opponent's courts. Each match consisted of four Singles and two Doubles. The league has been most successful since being organized.

W. J. Crocker, Lawn Tennis instructor at the Longwood Cricket Club under a three years' contract, is a fine teacher, being very successful with the members of the club.

A most interesting book on tennis in Australia was recently published by R. M. Kidston, the well known tennis authority of the game in Australia. The book gives full details of all the international matches with action pictures of all the players who have taken part, besides comparing their various strokes and match tactics. It will be most useful to any tennis player. Mr. Kidston dedicated his book to Norman E. Brookes.

The Southern States Championship will be held June 23 on the grass courts of the New Orleans Lawn Tennis Club.

Tennis players and golfers who go South during the winter months will find Highland Pines Hotel, Southern Pines, N. C., a most inviting place to visit, having good tennis courts and golf course. The hotel is situated in the highlands, two miles out of the city.

HOW TO MAKE A LAWN TENNIS COURT

In making a Lawn Tennis Court there should be, if possible, a clear margin of at least 12 feet on each side and 21 feet at each end of the court, or, between adjacent courts, 18 feet on each side; but should the courts be placed end to end, or end to side, there should be spaces of 42 feet or 33 feet respectively and a back net at least 8 feet high between.

The cheapest and most easy court to make is a

Clay Court

It is done by removing the sward from the lawn, taking care that the same is cut deep enough not to allow any of the grass roots to remain; there should be a space dug out 118 feet by 56 and about 6 or 10 inches deep, fill in with yellow clay and cover with 1-2 inch of carefully sifted binding gravel, taking out all small stones to the size of a pea, wet well and roll into the foundation of clay. If the court continues to be soft or sticky, spread more binding gravel over it, and continue to roll until the clay and gravel commences to bind and becomes firm. The maker of the court will have to use his own best judgment about this, as it is hard to decide the exact quantities of clay and binding gravel that should be used to cause the court to have the proper firmness.

In making the court there should be a gradual slope from the base lines to the center running across the court. Between the net posts should be built a blind drain; this is done to take off the water after a heavy rain.

A stone foundation is bad for a court, as it becomes hard and dry and severe on a player's feet and legs to play on

Grass Courts

These can be made in three ways, namely: first, by improving an existing stretch of turf until it is level and smooth enough; second, by leveling the ground, preparing the soil, and sowing grass seeds; and third, by laying fresh turf. Of these, the former is of course the simplest; but as the requisite piece of grass land is rarely available, particulars for preparing it are seldom required. In improving such a piece of turf care should be taken to remove all weeds or coarse grasses, and to freely use the spirit-level. To raise hollow places the turf should be cut out, lifted, and fine soil placed underneath until the proper height has been obtained, when the turf should be replaced and well beaten down with the flat side of a spade. On the other hand, small mounds should be removed by taking the soil away from under the grass, some fine mould being placed underneath the turf before it is replaced. To prepare a court for sowing seeds the same instructions may be followed as for making a turf-laid one, except that the seed will be sown instead of the turfs laid. Take care that the seed is good by purchasing from a first-class seedsman, and, when ordering, it will be well to state what sort of soil is to be sown. By far the larger number of courts are made by laying fresh turfs.

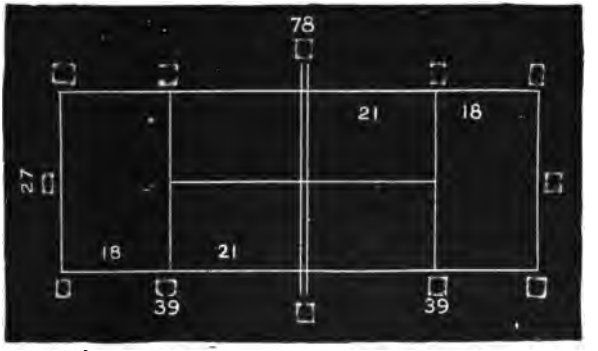
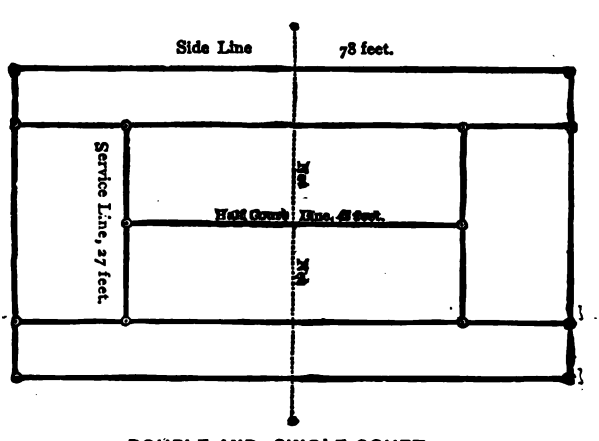
When preparing the ground for a court, it is desired to level a portion measuring 100 x 50 feet, which allows an ample margin; but for the playing portion itself only 78 x 36 feet is necessary. If economy must be strictly considered, only the latter need be carefully prepared; but it is better to have the whole done if possible.



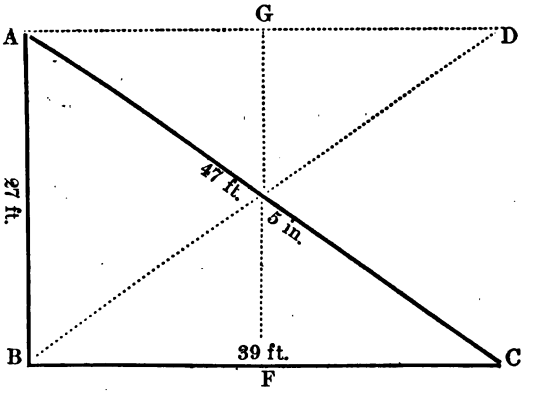
SINGLE COURT.



DOUBLE AND SINGLE COURT.

Dimensions of Lawn Tennis Courts.—The above cuts give the dimensions of the single court, and the double and single court on which a single or double game can be played.

HOW TO MARK OUT A COURT



As a double court practically includes every line to be found in a single court, it is best to take first the measure for the latter. Having determined the position of your net, plant in the ground, in the line chosen, two pegs, 27 feet apart (at the points A and B in the diagram). Then take two measures and attach their respective ends to the pegs A and B. On the first, which will measure the diagonal of the court, take a length of 47 ft. 5 in.; on the other, 39 ft.; pull both taut in such directions that at these distances they meet, in a point C. This will give one corner of the court. At that point, F 21 feet from B, put in a peg to mark the end of the service-line. The other corner, D, and the other end of the service-line G, may be found by interchanging the measures and repeating the process. The same measurements on the other side of the net will complete the exterior boundaries of the court. By prolonging the base-line 4 ft. 6 in. in each direction, and joining the four new points thus obtained, we can make the side-lines of a double court. It only remains to mark the central line. This is done by joining the middle points of the service-lines. If a double court alone be required, the interior side-lines need not be prolonged to meet the base-lines. Remember that in all cases the net-posts must stand at a distance of three feet from the side-lines.

LAWS OF LAWN TENNIS.

THE COURT.

1. The Court is 78 feet long and 27 feet wide. It is divided across the middle by a net, the ends of which are attached to two posts, A and B, standing 3 feet outside of the court on either side. The height of the net is 3 feet 6 inches at the posts, and 3 feet in the middle. At each end of the court, parallel with the net, and 39 feet from it, are drawn the base lines D E and F G, the ends of which are connected by the side lines D F and E G. Halfway between the side lines, and parallel with them, is drawn the half court line I H, dividing the space on each side of the net into two equal parts, the right and left courts. On each side of the net, at a distance of 21 feet from it, and parallel with it. are drawn the service lines K L and M N.

THE BALLS.

2. The Balls shall measure not less than 2½ inches, nor more than 2 9-16 inches in diameter; and shall weigh not less than 1 15-16 ounces, nor more than 2 ounces.

THE GAME.

3. The choice of sides, and the right to serve in the first game, shall be decided by toss; provided that, if the winner of the toss choose the right to serve, the other player shall have choice of sides, and vice versa, or the winner of the toss may insist upon a choice by his opponent. If one player choose the court, the other may elect not to serve.

4. The players shall stand on opposite sides of the net; the player who first delivers the ball shall be called the server, and the other the striker-out.

5. At the end of the first game the striker-out shall become server, and the server shall become striker-out; and so on alternately in all the subsequent games of the set and following sets.

FOOT FAULT RULE.

LAW 6. The server shall before commencing to serve stand with both feet at rest behind (i.e., further from the net than) the base-line and within the limits of the imaginary continuation of the half-court and side-lines, and thereafter the server shall not run, walk, hop or jump before the service has been delivered, but the server may raise one foot from (and, if desired, replace it on) the ground, provided that both feet are kept behind the base line until the service has been delivered.

Official Interpretation of law 6. If a foot be lifted and replaced, there must be no change of position that can possibly be considered a step.

LAW 7.—The service shall be delivered from the right and left courts alternately, beginning from the right in every game, even though odds be given or owed, and the ball served shall drop within the service-line, half court-line and side-line of the court which is diagonally opposite to that from which it was served or upon any such line.

LAW 8.—It is a fault if the server commit any breach of Law 7, or if the service be delivered from the wrong court, or if the ball served drop in the net or beyond the service line, or if it drop out of court or in the wrong court. If the server in attempting to serve, miss the ball altogether, it does not count a fault; but if the ball be touched, no matter how slightly, by the racket, a service is thereby delivered, and the laws governing the service at once apply.

8. It is a Fault if the ball served drop in the net, or beyond the service line, or out of court, or in the wrong court; or if the server do not stand as directed by law 6. If the server, in attempting to serve, miss the ball altogether, it does not count a fault, but if the ball be touched, no matter how slightly, by the racket, a service is thereby delivered, and the laws governing the service at once apply.

9. A fault cannot be taken.

10. After a fault the server shall serve again from the same court from which he served that fault, unless it was a fault because he served from the wrong court.

11. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service is delivered.

12. The server shall not serve till the striker-out is ready. If the latter attempt to return the service, he shall be deemed ready.

13. A service or fault delivered when the striker-out is not ready counts for nothing.

14. The service shall not be volleyed, that is, taken, before it has touched the ground.

15. A ball is in play on leaving the server's racket, except as provided for in law 8, and remains in play till the stroke is decided.

16. It is a good return, although the ball touch the net; but a service, otherwise good, which touches the net shall count for nothing.

17. The server wins a stroke if the striker-out volley the service, or if he fail to return the service or the ball in play; or if he return the service or the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court; or if he otherwise lose a stroke, as provided by law 20.

18. The striker-out wins a stroke if the server serve two consecutive faults; or if he fail to return the ball in play; or if he return the ball in play so that it drops outside of his opponent's court; or if he otherwise lose a stroke as provided by law 20.

19. A ball falling on a line is regarded as falling in the court bounded by that line.

20. Either player loses a stroke if the ball touch him, or anything that he wears or carries, except his racket in the act of striking; or if he touch the ball with his racket more than once; or if he touch the net or any of its supports while the ball is in play; or if he volley the ball before it has passed the net.

21. In case a player is obstructed by any accident, not within his control, the ball shall be considered a "let." But when a permanent fixture of the court is the cause of the accident, the point shall be counted. The benches and chairs placed around the court shall be considered permanent fixtures. If, however, a ball in play strike a permanent fixture of the court (other than the net or posts) before it touches the ground, the point is lost; if after it has touched the ground, the point shall be counted.

22. On either player winning his first stroke, the score is called 15 for that player; on either player winning his second stroke, the score is called 30 for that player; on either player winning his third stroke, the score is called 40 for that player; and the fourth stroke won by either player is scored game for that player, except as below. If both players have won three strokes, the score is called deuce; and the next stroke won by either player is scored advantage for that player. If the same player win the next stroke, he wins the game; if he lose the next stroke the score returns to deuce, and so on until one player wins the two strokes immediately following the score of deuce, when game is scored for that player.

23. The player who first wins six games wins the set; except as below: If both players win five games the score is called games all; and the next game won by either player is scored advantage game for that player. If the same player win the next game, he wins the set; if he lose the next game, the score returns to games all; and so on, until either player wins the two games immediately following the score of games all, when he wins the set. But the committee having charge of any tournament may in their discretion modify this rule by the omission of advantage sets.

24. The players shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of each set and at the end of each set, unless the number of games in such set be even. It shall, however, be open to the players by mutual consent and notification to the umpire before the opening of the second game of the match to change sides instead at the end of every set until the odd and concluding set, in which they shall change sides at the end of the first, third and every subsequent alternate game of such set.

* 25. In all contests the play shall be continuous from the first service till the match be concluded; provided, however, that at the end of the third set either player is entitled to a rest, which shall not exceed seven minutes; and provided, further, that in case of an unavoidable accident, not within the control of the contestants, a cessation of play which shall not exceed two minutes may be allowed between points; but this proviso shall be strictly construed, and the privilege never granted for the purpose of allowing a player to recover his strength or wind. The referee in his discretion may at any time postpone the match on account of darkness or condition of the ground or weather. In any case of postponement, the previous score shall hold good. Where the play has ceased for more than an hour, the player who at the cessation thereof

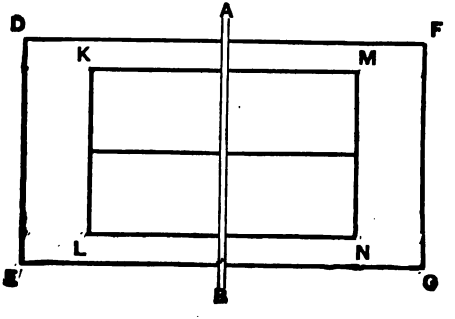
*All matches in which women take part in tournaments held under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association shall be the best two in three sets, with a rest not exceeding seven minutes after the second set.

was in the court first chosen shall have the choice of courts on the recommencement of play. He shall stay in the court he chooses for the remainder of the set. The last two sentences of this rule do not apply when the players change every alternate game as provided by law 24.

26. If a player serve out of his turn, the umpire, as soon as the mistake is discovered, shall direct the player to serve who ought to have served. But all strokes scored before such discovery shall be counted. If a game shall have been completed before such discovery, then the service in the next alternate game shall be delivered by the player who did not serve out of his turn, and so on in regular rotation.

27. The above laws shall apply to the three-handed and four-handed games, except as below:—

THE THREE-HANDED AND FOUR-HANDED GAMES.



28. For the three-handed and four-handed games the court shall be 36 feet in width; 4½ feet inside the side lines, and parallel with them, are drawn the service side lines K M and L N. The service lines are not drawn beyond the point at which they meet the service side lines, as shown in the diagram.

29. In the three-handed game, the single player shall serve in every alternate game.

30. In the four-handed game, the pair who have the right to serve in the first game shall decide which partner shall do so; and the opposing pair shall decide in like manner for the second game. The partner of the player who served in the first game shall serve in the third, and the partner of the player who served in the second game shall serve in the fourth, and the same order shall be maintained in all the subsequent games of the set.

31. At the beginning of the next set, either partner of the pair which struck out in the last game of the last set may serve; and the same privilege is given to their opponents in second game of the new set.

32. The players shall take the service alternately throughout the game; a player cannot receive a service delivered to his partner; and the order of service and striking out once established shall not be altered, nor shall the striker-out change courts to receive the service, till the end of the set.

33. It is a fault if the ball served do not drop between the service line, half-court line, and service side line of the court, diagonally opposite to that from which it was served.

34. It is a fault if the ball served do not drop as provided in law 35, or if it touch the server's partner or anything he wears or carries.

The Constitution

OF THE

United States National Lawn Tennis Association

ARTICLE I

NAME

This organization shall be known as the "United States National Lawn Tennis Association," hereinafter referred to as the National Association.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERS

SECTION 1. The membership shall consist of the following classes:

(1) Clubs
(2) Active Associations
(3) Allied Associations

Allied associations shall consist of associations of schools or colleges, but such associations, if they so desire, may become active associations by notifying the Secretary of the National Association and paying the dues for an active association. Active associations shall consist of all associations other than allied associations and in each case the limits of an active association shall necessarily exclude to that extent the limits of every other such association.

SEC. 2. An association either (2) or (3) shall consist of five or more individual clubs, any one of which may or may not be itself a member directly of the National Association. Each club shall at all meetings be entitled to one vote. Each active association shall be entitled to two votes and to one additional vote for every five clubs or fraction thereof members of it over ten. Allied associations shall not be entitled to any vote. No club being itself a member of the National Association shall be counted as a member of an active association in determining the number of votes which may be cast by such association.

SEC. 3. On or before the first day of January in every year each sub-association shall send to the Secretary of the National Association the names and addresses of its secretary and treasurer and a list of clubs belonging to it on December 1st preceding, and each club directly a member of the National Association shall send to the Secretary of the National Association the names and addresses of its secretary and treasurer, holding office on December 1st preceding. The secretary of each association shall notify the Secretary of the National Association of any changes in its membership immediately upon their occurrence.

ARTICLE III

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

SEC. 1. Proposals for membership must be made in writing to the Executive Committee, hereinafter provided for, with the name and address of the applicant, and signed by the proper officer of the club or association making the proposal, and shall give such information with regard to membership, grounds, etc., as shall be required by the Executive Committee. Where the applicant is an association, the names and addresses of each of its members shall be given with the application, together with a statement of the limits that it desires to represent.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee shall have full power to elect candidates for membership, except that no association shall be deemed a member whose limits shall conflict with those of any other association until its election be confirmed by a two-thirds' vote at the annual meeting of the National Association, or the associations upon whose limits it encroaches consent to such encroachment. The election to membership of such an association automatically decreases the limits of other associations to such an extent as shall preclude a conflict of limits.

SEC. 3. Dues, etc.—The annual dues to the National Association, in the case of clubs, shall be ten dollars ($10) and in the case of active associations shall be thirty-five dollars ($35), except that where any such association is composed of more than ten clubs its annual dues shall in addition be fifteen dollars ($15) for every five clubs or fraction thereof above ten. Allied associations shall not be required to pay any annual dues. No clubs or association shall be allowed the privilege of a member until after its first annual dues have been paid and no club shall be entitled to a vote at the annual meeting of the National Association unless it was a member thereof for the preceding fiscal year. The fiscal year of the National Association shall begin February 1st. All dues for the ensuing year are payable on or before May 1st.

SEC. 4. Limits of Payments, etc.—Any club or association which shall fail to have paid its annual dues on or before June 1st may be debarred from the privileges of a member by the Executive Committee until the same are paid, and, at their discretion, may be dropped from the roll.

ARTICLE IV

RESIGNATIONS, EXPULSIONS, ETC.

SEC. 1. Resignations, etc.—Any member wishing to resign must do so in writing, addressed to the Secretary; and the resignation cannot be accepted until all dues for the current fiscal year are paid. Resignations must be received before February 1st to relieve the member from payment of dues for the ensuing year.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee of the National Association hereinafter provided for, shall have the power to suspend or expel any member which may neglect or refuse a strict and honorable compliance with its constitution, By-Laws, etc., or which shall, by its conduct, bring reproach or disgrace upon the National Association; or which shall, being itself an association, retain as one of its members any club objected to by notice in writing by the Executive Committee, subject to the right of any member, if expelled, to appeal to the National Association, at its next annual meeting, for reinstatement.

to be held under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, according to such Rules and Regulations as may be, from time to time, prescribed by said Association. The winner of the said championship shall be entitled to the possession of the cup for the period during which he holds the championship, being responsible, however, for the production of the cup at the next championship contest. This cup shall become the property of the player who shall win said championship at.....

9.—It is the duty of an Umpire—

(a) To ascertain that the net is at the right height before the commencement of play, and to measure and adjust the net during play, if asked to do so, or if, in his opinion, its height has altered.

(b) To call the faults (subject to Regulation 10) and lets unless he delegates such power.

(c) To call the strokes when won, or when he is asked to call them, and to record them upon the Umpire's scoring sheet.

(d) To call the games and the sets at the end of each,

---

* Example:

The strokes are scored by means of pencil marks in the spaces beneath the word "STROKES," thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.																				Game won by
1	A. B.	1	1		1		1
	C. D.			1		1
2	C. D.		1		1	1		1			1	1	1
	A. B.	1		1			1		1	1

The Scoring Sheet shows that in the first game the score ran, and would have been called, thus: — "15—love, 30—love, 30—15, 40—15, 40—30, game (A.B.)" In the second game: "Love—15, 15 all, 15—30, 30 all, 40—30, deuce, advantage (C.D.), deuce, advantage (A.B.), deuce, advantage (C.D.), game (C.D.)"

The score of the Server should be called first.

or when asked to call them, and to record them on the Umpire's scoring sheet.

NOTE—At the end of each game the games should be called with the name of the player who is in advance, thus: "2 games to 1, B wins" or, "B leads." If the games are level the score should be called thus, "three games all," or as the case may be. At the end of each set the sets should be called in like manner.

(e) To direct the Competitors to change sides, in accordance with Law 24.

In scoring handicap matches, the odds received should be marked by crosses on the right of the first perpendicular thick line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	STROKES.	Game won by
1	A. B.	+
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +
3	A. B.	+
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +
5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+ +

Here A. B. is receiving 15 and 3-sixths of 15.

(f) When appealed to during a rally, whether a doubtful ball is "in play" or not, to call "play," and at the conclusion of the rally to give his decision (subject to Regulation 11) or direct the Competitors to play the stroke again.

(g) To decide all doubtful or disputed strokes, and all points of law (subject to Regulations 10 and 11), and to be responsible for the proper conduct of the match.

When odds are owed, they should be marked on the left of the first thick perpendicular line before the commencement of each game, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	Strokes.	Game won by
1	A. B.	1 1
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	1
3	A. B.	1 1
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	1
5	A. B.	1
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	1

(h) In handicap matches to call the odds at the commencement of each set.

(i) To sign the Umpire's scoring sheets, and to deliver them at the conclusion of the match to such person as the Committee may authorize to receive them.

Provided, that no omission of any of the foregoing duties on the part of an Umpire shall of itself invalidate any stroke, game or match.

and should be crossed off one by one when the player owing wins a stroke, thus:

Game.	Initials of Players.	Strokes.	Game won by
1	A. B.	+ +
	C. D.
2	C. D.
	A. B.	+
3	A. B.	+ +
	C. D.
4	C. D.
	A. B.	+
5	A. B.	+
	C. D.
6	C. D.
	A. B.	+

Here A.B. owes 15 and 2-sixths of 15.

10.—It is the duty of the Linesman to call faults and to decide strokes relating to the line or lines to which he is assigned and to said line or lines only, and such decision shall be final. Should the Linesman be unable to give a decision, the Umpire shall decide or shall direct the stroke to be played again.

11. The decision of an Umpire shall be final upon every question of fact, and no competitor may appeal from it; but if an Umpire be in doubt as to a point of law, or if a competitor appeal against his decision on such a point, the Umpire shall submit it to the Referee whose decision shall be final.

NOTE—A question of fact relates to events that actually happened. A question of law is the construction and application of the laws of the game to the admitted facts.

12. The Referee shall not bet on a match nor shall an Umpire or Linesman on the match to which he is assigned. An infraction of this rule shall be followed by the immediate removal of the offending Referee, Umpire or Linesman on the complaint of any competitor.

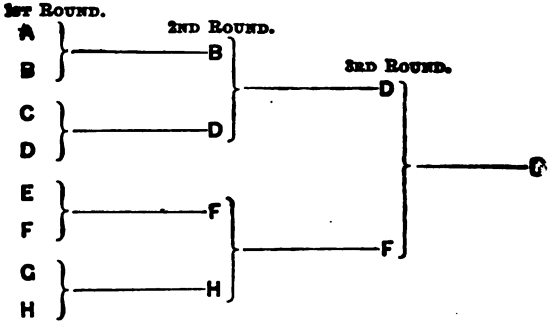
13. No Competitor may transfer his entry to another player.

14.—Competitors shall have a right, by themselves or their deputies, to be present at the draw.

15.—The draw shall be conducted in the following manner: Each Competitor's name shall be written on a separate card or paper, and these shall be placed in a bowl or hat, drawn out one by one at random, and copied on a list in the order in which they have been drawn

Infraction of this rule renders a Club or other organization liable to loss of its tournament for the following year; except that in invitation tournaments, and competitions between nations, states, cities, clubs and similar bodies where the competition is really between such bodies and not between the players as individuals, players may be placed in such manner as agreed upon by the management of the competition, and except that in Intercollegiate and Interscholastic matches the draw shall be arranged to prevent members of the same college or school from meeting each other in the first and second rounds, the draw in other ways being arranged absolutely by chance.

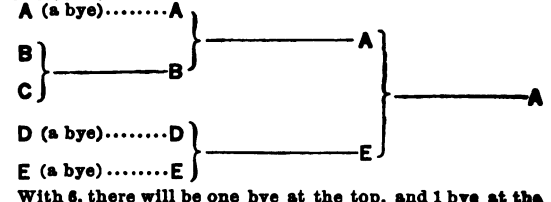
16.—When the number of Competitors is 4, 8, 16 32, 64, or any higher power of 2, they shall meet in pairs, in accordance with the system shown by the following diagram:



17.—When the number of Competitors is not a power of 2, there shall be byes in the first round. The number of byes shall be equal to the difference between the number of Competitors and the next higher power of 2, and the number of pairs that shall meet in the first round shall be equal to the difference between the number of Competitors and the next lower power of 2. The byes, if even in number, shall be divided, as the names are drawn, in equal proportions at the top and bottom of the list, above and below the pairs. If uneven in number, there shall be one more bye at the bottom than at the top. Thus—

SERIES 1.

From 5 to 8 Competitors.



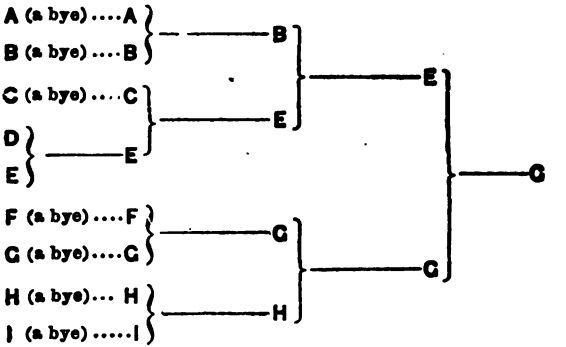
With 6, there will be one bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom. With 7, 1 bye at the bottom. With 8, no byes.

SERIES 2.

From 9 to 16 Competitors.

With 9, 3 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.

1ST ROUND.

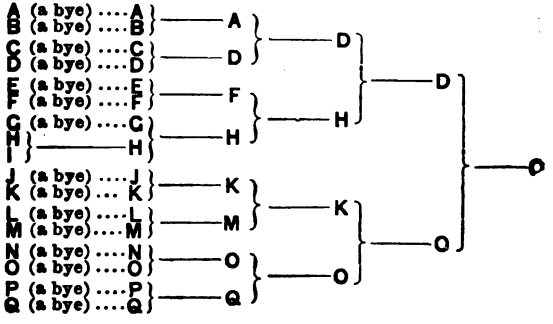


With 10, 3 byes at the top, and 3 at the bottom.
With 11, 2 byes at the top, and 3 at the bottom.
With 12, 2 byes at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 13, 1 bye at the top, and 2 at the bottom.
With 14, 1 bye at the top, and 1 at the bottom.
With 15, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 16, no byes.

SERIES 2.

From 17 to 32 Competitors.

With 17, 7 byes at the top, and 8 byes at the bottom.



With 18, 7 byes at the top, and 7 byes at the bottom.
With 19, 6 byes at the top, and 7 byes at the bottom.
With 20, 6 byes at the top, and 6 byes at the bottom.
With 21, 5 byes at the top, and 6 byes at the bottom.
With 22, 5 byes at the top, and 5 byes at the bottom.
With 23, 4 byes at the top, and 5 byes at the bottom.
With 24, 4 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.
With 25, 3 byes at the top, and 4 byes at the bottom.
With 26, 3 byes at the top, and 3 byes at the bottom.
With 27, 2 byes at the top, and 3 byes at the bottom.
With 28, 2 byes at the top, and 2 byes at the bottom.
With 29, 1 bye at the top, and 2 byes at the bottom.
With 30, 1 bye at the top, and 1 bye at the bottom.
With 31, 1 bye at the bottom.
With 32, no byes.
And so on with larger numbers in the same manner.

18.—If a Competitor be absent when called upon to play, or shall refuse to play, or shall have given previous notice to the Referee or to a member of the Committee that he cannot play in the next round, his adversary shall win in that round, unless said Competitor shall have been formally excused for a definite period by the Referee.

19.—In handicap matches the competitors shall be handicapped by the Committee, or by a Handicapper appointed by the Committee.

20.—The method of handicapping shall be by classes as below: —

GIVEN ODDS.

Class O — (Scratch).

Class	1	receives	1-sixth of 15.
"	2	"	2-sixths of 15.
"	3	"	3-sixths of 15.
"	4	"	4-sixths of 15.
"	5	"	5-sixths of 15.
"	6	"	15.
"	7	"	15 and 1-sixth of 15.
"	8	"	15 and 2-sixths of 15.
"	9	"	15 and 3-sixths of 15.
"	10	"	15 and 4-sixths of 15.
"	11	"	15 and 5-sixths of 15.
"	12	"	30.
"	13	"	30 and 1-sixth of 15.
"	14	"	30 and 2-sixths of 15.
"	15	"	30 and 3-sixths of 15.
"	16	"	30 and 4-sixths of 15.
"	17	"	30 and 5-sixths of 15.
"	18	"	40.

When two players in different classes below scratch meet, the superior player shall start from scratch, and the odds received by the inferior player are as shown by the annexed table, No. 1. To use the table, find in the diagonal line of figures the number representing the class of the superior player, then travel along the horizontal column until the vertical column is reached which bears at the top the number of the class of the inferior player. The odds specified at the intersection of the two columns are the odds required.

Example.—If class 3 has to meet class 9, start from the figure 3 in the diagonal line of figures, and look horizontally until the vertical column is reached headed by the figure 9. The odds given at the point of intersection of the two columns (viz., 15 and 1-6 of 15) are the odds required.

When the difference between the best and the worst players entered is great (say more than 30), it is desirable to handicap the best players at owed odds. The players above scratch (i. e., owing odds) should be classified as follows: —

OWED ODDS.

Class	1	owes	1-sixth of 15.
"	2	"	2-sixths of 15.
"	3	"	3-sixths of 15.
"	4	"	4-sixths of 15.
"	5	"	5-sixths of 15.
"	6	"	15.
"	7	"	15 and 1-sixth of 15.
"	8	"	15 and 2-sixths of 15.
"	9	"	15 and 3-sixths of 15.

"	16	"	30 and 4-sixths of 15.
"	17	"	30 and 5-sixths of 15.
"	18	"	40.

HANDICAPS. TABLE No. 1. (Received Odds).

When two players, both in receipt of odds, meet, the player receiving the smaller odds is put back to scratch. The following table shows the point at which the other should then start. The number at the left of the horizontal columns denotes the player who goes back to scratch, those at the head of the vertical columns the player who still receives odds; and the numbers within the columns show the odds to be received by the player whose number stands at the head of the column.

" " " $\frac{3}{9}$ " .5188

" " Length of a game is 4.6250 strokes.

In using this table supply throughout the word "owe" before the odds specified.

When the two players in different classes above scratch meet, the inferior player shall start from scratch, and the odds owed by the superior player are as shown by the annexed table, No. 2.

This table is to be used in the same way as the former, the class of the superior player being looked for in the horizontal line of figures at the top, and the class of the inferior player in the diagonal line of figures.

Example.—If class 12 (owe 30) meet class 7 (owe 15 and 1-6 of 15), the former must owe the latter the odds of 4-6 of 15.

21.—In Championship matches and handicaps by classes, as above, advantage sets shall be played throughout.

22.—The Committee may, whether appealed to by any Competitor or not, postpone the meeting or any match or part of a match if, in their opinion, the state of the weather, or of the light, or the condition of the ground, or other circumstances, render it advisable to do so. In cases of postponement, Law 25 must be strictly observed.

23.—In all Tournaments sanctioned by the Association the use of spikes longer than one-eighth of an inch is prohibited.

REGULATIONS FOR INTERSCHOLASTIC TOURNAMENTS

Colleges or clubs, members directly or indirectly of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, may, with the consent of the Association give Intercholastic tournaments.

Players in such tournaments shall be limited to boys attending schools preparing for college.

No player shall take part who is over twenty years of age, and no player shall take part in more than one Interscholastic event in one year.

The winners of such tournaments shall be eligible to play for the Interscholastic Championship at a tournament given by the National Association, and should a winner of an Interscholastic tournament be unable to play for the Championship, the management of the Interscholastic which he should have represented shall have the power to appoint a substitute, provided that such substitute played in the said Interscholastic tournament given that year. No dues shall be required by the National Association other than the regular dues of the college or club giving the event.

Cases and Decisions.

By James Dwight.

THE following Cases and Decisions are intended to meet questions often asked at Tournaments, and also to cover points apparently not provided for in the Laws.

1. A player standing outside the court volleys the ball or catches it in his hand, and claims the stroke because the ball was certainly going out of court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. It makes no difference where he was standing. The return is presumed good until it strikes the ground outside of the court.

II. A player is struck by the ball served before it has touched the ground, he being outside of the service court. How does it count?

Decision.—The player struck loses the stroke. The service is presumably good until it strikes in the wrong court. A player cannot take the decision upon himself by stopping the ball. If it is going to be a fault, he has only to get out of the way.

III. The service is delivered before the striker-out is ready. He tries to return it and fails. Is he entitled to have it played over again?

Decision.—No. If he attempts to return the service he is deemed ready.

IV. The striker-out calls "Not ready," for a second service. The ball strikes beyond the service line, and the striker-out claims that the fact that he was not ready makes no difference, since a fault cannot be returned, and, therefore, that two faults have been served.

Decision.—The second service goes for nothing. A player cannot call "Not ready," and then have the service count, or not, as suits his interests.

V. A ball having been played over the net bounds back into the court from which it came. The player reaches over the net and plays it before it falls. Has he a right to do so?

Decision.—Yes, provided he does not touch the net. He has a right to play the ball at any time from the moment it crosses the net into his court until it touches the ground a second time.

VI. A ball is played into the net; the player on the other side, thinking that the ball is coming over, strikes at it and hits the net. Who loses the stroke?

Decision.—It is simply a question of fact for the umpire to decide. If the player touched the net while the ball was still in play he loses the stroke.

VII. Can a player follow a ball over the net with his racket, provided that he hits the ball on his own side of the net?

Decision.—Yes. The only restrictions are that he shall not volley the ball until it has crossed the net, and that he shall not touch the net or any of its supports.

VIII. A player's racket slips out of his hand and flies into the net. Does he lose the stroke for hitting the net?

Decision.—Yes, if the ball be still in play. It does not matter if the racket be in a player's hand or not.

IX. A player's racket leaves his hand, but meets the ball and returns it over the net. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes. There is no law requiring a racket to be in a player's hand when the ball is returned. It would unquestionably be a good return if the racket were held against the ground by a player's feet, and the ball bounded back off of it.

X. A single match is played with a double net and inside posts. A player touches the net beyond the inside posts, and claims that he does not lose the stroke because there should be no net more than three feet outside of the court.

Decision.—He loses the stroke. The net where he touches it is part of the supports of the net. He might, perhaps, have objected to the arrangement of the net before the match.

XI. A player returns the ball, and, finding that he cannot stop himself before reaching the net, jumps over it. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Law 4 requires that "the players shall stand on opposite sides of the net," and therefore the player invading his opponent's court loses the stroke.

XII. A ball passes outside the post of the net and strikes in court. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XIII. A ball going out of court hits the top of the post of the net and bounds into the opposite court.

Decision.—It is a good return.

XIV. The service or the ball in play strikes a ball lying in the court. Can it be returned?

Decision.—Yes, if it be clear to the umpire that the right ball is returned.

XV. The server claims that the striker-out must stand in the court. Is this necessary?

Decision.—No. The striker-out can stand wherever he pleases on his own side of the net.

XVI. A bystander gets in the way of a player, who fails to return the ball. May he then claim a let?

Decision.—Yes, if, in the umpire's opinion, he was prevented by an accident beyond his control. For instance, if the ropes or the seats are allowed to be so near to the court that a player is interfered with by them, the stroke should not be played again, because the ropes and seats form part of the arrangements of the ground. If, however, a spectator passes in front of those seats, or places a chair nearer than the original line, and so interferes with a player, the stroke should be played again.

XVII. A player is interfered with as above, and the umpire directs the stroke to be played again. The server had previously served a fault. He claims the right to two services.

Decision.—The fault stands. A let does not annul a previous fault.

XVIII. A return hits the umpire, or his chair or stand, the player claims that the ball was going into court.

Decision.—Stroke is lost.

XIX. A player receiving fifteen, serves from the left court. His opponent claims a fault.

Decision.—It is a fault. The service starts from the right court under all circumstances.

XX. At fifteen-all the server by mistake serves from the left court, he wins the stroke and serves again a fault), the mistake is then discovered. Is he entitled to the previous stroke? From which court should he serve next?

Decision.—The previous stroke stands. A fault cannot be claimed after the next service, good or not, is delivered. The next service should be from the left court, the score being thirty-fifteen, and the server has served one fault.

XXI. A player serves from the wrong court, he loses the stroke, and then claims that it was a fault.

Decision.—If the stroke was played in his first service it is simply a fault, but if he serves twice into the wrong court he has served two faults, and lost the stroke.

XXII. The score is five games all, and the umpire directs the players to play an advantage set. The advantage game has been won, when it is discovered that no advantage sets are to be played. What is to be done?

Decision.—The set is won at the eleventh game. It is no part of the umpire's duty to decide on the conditions of the matches.

XXIII. A player serves. He hears the umpire call, but cannot hear what he says. He knows that the only two things that the umpire should call are "fault" and "let," and that in neither case can the ball be in play. He, therefore, does not return it, only to find that the umpire has called "play." Has he any redress?

Decision.—No.

XXIV. The umpire calls "fault," and then instantly changes and says "play." The striker-out fails to return the ball, and he claims he was prevented by the umpire, and also that the umpire cannot change his decision.

Decision.—The umpire should call a let and the service be taken again.

XXV. A ball drops near a line, the player appeals, and the umpire calls "play." The player misunderstands the call and lets the ball fall. He then claims to have the stroke played again.

Decision.—The stroke stands.

XXVI.—The ball strikes the ground close to a line, the scorer scores the stroke against the striker. On appeal to the lineaman, the latter decided that the ball was not out. Which decision stands?

Decision.—The scorer has no right to consider a ball out until the linesman has called to that effect; therefore, the decision of the latter must be accepted. The decision of a linesman affecting his own line is final.

XXVII. A return strikes the cord running along the bottom of the net and bounds over. Is it a good return?

Decision.—Yes.

XXVIII. During play a ball is thrown into court, and the ball in play strikes it or a player steps on it. May a let be claimed?

Decision.—Yes.

XXIX. The server's first service strikes his partner. Does he lose the stroke or is it a fault?

Decision.—A fault.

XXX. A player serves a fault and it is then discovered that it is his partner's service. Does the fault stand?

Decision—Yes.

XXXI. In a four-handed competition one player does not appear in time to play, and his partner claims to be allowed to play single-handed against the opposing pair May he do so?

Decision.—No.

THE WRIGHT & DITSON TENNIS RACKETS

We do all it is possible for any one to do to make perfect Rackets. Gut, however, is sensitive to atmospheric changes, and owners of Rackets should take all the precautions they possibly can to prevent their being exposed to dampness, keeping the Racket in a waterproof cover, and in a press. Yet, no matter how careful a player may be, the natural wear on a Racket, particularly on dirt courts, often causes the strings to give way. The expense of repairing this break (as it occurs through no defect of the Racket), should be borne by the player.

GUARANTEE

WE GUARANTEE our rackets for thirty days from date of purchase. If any defect appears, please return, transportation charges prepaid, to any Wright & Ditson store, and the defect will be rectified. If the gut breaks through defect the racket will be restrung or repaired, and in the event of a broken frame due to workmanship or defect in material, the Racket will be replaced. This guarantee does not apply to Rackets weighing less than 13 ounces.

We play tennis; are in constant touch with every player of note; the best players use our rackets, which indicates very plainly why Wright & Ditson Rackets are the most practicable.

IT PAYS TO GET THE BEST.

The

WARD & WRIGHT SUTTON STAR AND PIM

The Ward & Wright Racket

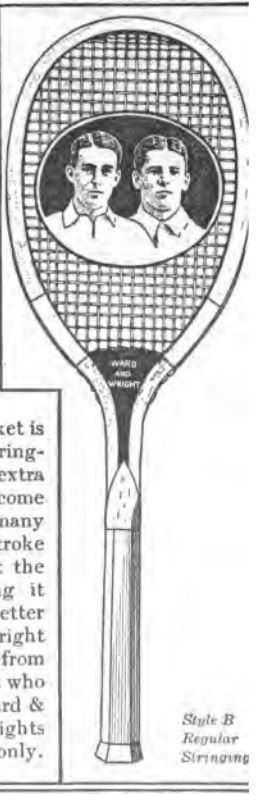
Style C With Extra Center Strings

Scientifically the Ward & Wright is the strongest racket made. It will stand restringing better than any other style racket. Frame is made of specially selected ash. Gut used in stringing is the best imported, noted for its life and driving qualities.

When ordering kindly state the Weight and Style—C or B—desired.

Price, with waterproof racket case, Each, $8.00

THE Ward & Wright Racket is made in two styles of stringing. Style C, containing extra center strings, which has become very popular with a great many players, especially ground stroke players, and style B without the extra center strings, making it less rigid, and consequently better for volleying. The Ward & Wright Racket is made in weights from 13 to 15 ounces. For players who like an extra large handle Ward & Wright we have them in weights 14, 14¼, 14½, and 15 ounces only.



Style B Regular Stringing

Davis Cup RACKET

Different from other models now in use, being wider across throat, as frame at this point is sunken or grooved out in center. This gives more playing surface to the four up-and-down or main strings, thus helping to give player needed speed for the essential passing stroke. Selected gut. 5¼ in. handle; weights 14, 14¼, 14½, and 15 ounces.

Price, with waterproof case, . . Each, $8.00

Pim RACKET

One of the leading rackets. Used by nearly all players of note. Frame made of lively ash, bound near throat to give extra strength. Best quality lambs' gut, noted for its driving qualities; weights ranging from 13 to 15 oz.

For players who like an extra large handle Pim, we have them in weights 14, 14¼, 14½, 15 ounces.

Price, with waterproof case, . . Each, $8.00

SUTTON STAR RACKET

Has a long narrow head with a 5¼ inch handle that does not taper until nearly reaching the throat, thus giving a player the same grip when volleying or when using a short grip, as in serving or smashing. This is a distinct advantage. It also gives a much more even balance. Strung with the very best imported gut and made in weights 14, 14¼, 14½, and 15 ounces.

Price, with waterproof case, Each, $8.00

St. George RACKET

Head is the perfect oval shape so popular with some players; beautifully balanced. Strung with best quality Oriental gut. A superior all around racket. Weight 12½ to 15 ounces

Each, $4.00

The "Combination" Racket Press and Case

Pat. Applied for

Is the most practical invention ever put on the market for the preservation of tennis rackets. As the name suggests, it is both a Press and a Case under one cover. The Case makes it practically waterproof and the Press holds the frame in shape. The Case is made of the best sole leather and is perfectly finished making an A1 article. Not only experts have these, but to the average club player who desires to keep his racket in playable condition, it is a necessity.

Longwood Tournament Net Posts and Nets

Very often the top cords and binding of tennis nets, and sometimes the reels too, are injured through improper methods of tightening. Part of the strain should always be taken off the binding, cord and reel, by lifting the net until all the slackness has been taken up by the reel.

No. 231X. Longwood Tournament Tennis Nets are made by hand from first quality 21-thread twine. Bound at top with a heavy two-inch canvas strip. Body of the net is tarred to protect it from the weather, and make it non-shrinkable, and at the same time players may see the white ball better from the other side. Fitted with a galvanized steel cable at top, to one end of which is spliced a short manila rope for convenience in fastening to reel. For double court, 42 x 3 feet. . . . . Each, $10.00

No. 230X. As above, only 33 x 3 feet, for single court, . " 9.00

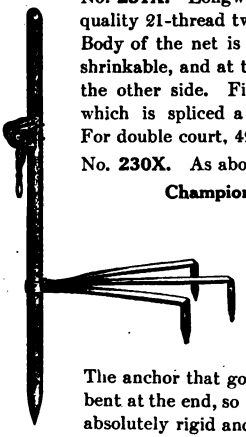
Championship Canvas Center Straps (as shown in cut) are listed on next page.



The Longwood Tournament Net Posts

The Longwood Tournament Net Posts are made of iron, enameled green, fitted with a very strong reel for making the rope tight, with hooks on the side to lace the net close to the pole as shown in cut.

The anchor that goes with this post is made of one piece, with three prongs bent at the end, so that they may be driven in the ground, making the anchor absolutely rigid and secure. It is by far the neatest and strongest post ever used on a tennis court. . . . . Per pair, $20.00

The above Tennis Posts and Nets make the ideal tennis court. Neat, durable and the very best for all purposes.

NOTE.—The Posts should be set 3 feet outside the side line. 42 feet is the regulation length for a double court net, and 33 feet for a single court net.

This style is especially desirable wherever it is a convenience to be able to remove the posts. The anchorage holds the posts perfectly rigid and is placed flush with the ground so that a mowing machine or roller can be run over it without damage to either.

Made of yellow pine—strong and finely finished—fitted with substantial reel.

Newport Net Posts. Pair, $10.00

CHAMPIONSHIP CANVAS CENTER STRAPS

No. 3-O. Holds center of net at regulation height, 3 feet, and is vastly superior to the ordinary center iron. It serves the purpose intended perfectly, does not chafe the net, and cannot possibly cause the ball to glance off and strike out of court, as is occasionally the case with a center iron. It is fitted with a turn buckle, with which height of net can be adjusted to a hair. Very desirable for tournament or match games. Each, $1.25

No. 2-O. Same as No. 3-O, but without turn buckle for adjusting height. Each. $1.00
